CONSUMER ACCOUNTS

July 14, 2022

Union
Savings Bank

The Schedule of Interest and Deposit Account Charges is a component of your Consumer Deposit Account Agreement, Consumer Electronic Funds Transfer and Debit Card Agreement. This document describes the account requirements, fees and charges associated with Checking Accounts, Savings Accounts, Certificates of Deposit (CDs) and Retirement Accounts at Union Savings Bank. We may deduct these charges from your Account.

This document also describes additional terms that govern the payment of interest on your Union Savings Bank Checking Account, Savings Account, Certificate of Deposit (CD) and Retirement Account.

Please refer to the Union Savings Bank Schedule of Interest - Personal Accounts for current interest rate information.

An individual account may be opened by any legally competent person, adult or minor (person under the age of 18) who is able to sign his or her own name. The named individual owns all of the funds in the account.

The statement cycle for all consumer accounts, including combined statements, will end on the last calendar day of the month.

UNION SAVINGS BANK CONSUMER CHECKING ACCOUNTS

A description of each checking account offered is provided below. Please see "Other Fees and Charges" for additional information about the costs associated with each account. Fees may cause a negative account balance.

Check printing charges may vary depending on the style of checks ordered.

Debit cards are available for all checking accounts and may be issued to individual account holders age 18 years or older. We may restrict single ownership by minors of USB checking accounts and/or debit cards. A card will be issued to account holder age 17 or younger, only if the account is titled jointly with an adult person or guardian.
